ARPIN VAN LINES NAMES 2009 PRIME AGENT AWARD WINNERS

WEST WARWICK, R.I. (November 13, 2009) - Arpin Van Lines has named Studdard Moving & Storage of Leavenworth, Kan., as the 2009 Prime Agent of the Year. Studdard and dozens of other agents were honored at the Arpin Van Lines Agent convention held in Scottsdale, Ariz.

The 2009 Prime Agent of the Year Award is given to the agent of the month who maintains the highest quality scores based on customer survey responses, low claims, and an excellent safety record. This year's recipient, Studdard Moving & Storage of Leavenworth, Kan., maintains a comprehensive training program that addresses every aspect of customer service and proper packing and loading procedures. Studdard has participated in numerous humanitarian aid projects, such as working with the Kansas National Guard to collect and ship clothing, shoes, medicines, school supplies and other aid items to Iraq.

The Paul Arpin Award is given to a handpicked agent who goes above and beyond to provide on-going service and support to Arpin Van Lines, the Agency Family, drivers and owner-operators. The winning agent must exhibit the high level of quality service upon which Paul Arpin built his company and legacy. This year's recipient, Richard Greenberg of Charles Wood & Sons Moving of Melville, N.Y., has served as an agent advisory board member for many years and a chairman for over two years. Richard Greenberg has devoted his time and energy to serving the interests of the Agency Family and has worked toward mutually beneficial solutions for all.

The 2009 Best New Prime Agent is given to the most accomplished first-year member of the Prime Agency Family. This year's recipient, Don Farr Moving & Storage of West Mifflin, Pa., hit the ground running as a new member of the agency by taking on an increased workload while maintaining high service quality.

In addition to the above, other award winners were Don and Brenda Queeney of Hampton Roads and Moving & Storage of Chesapeake and Hampton, Va., who won the Charles Campbell Mentor Award and K & C Moving and Storage of Murfreesboro, Tenn., who took home the Humanitarian Award.
