Professional Moving Companies Win Big says Canadian Association of Movers

MISSISSAUGA, ON--(Marketwired - November 29, 2016) - The Canadian Association of Movers (CAM) held their annual awards on November 21, 2016 in Mississauga, ON honoring professional moving companies across the country and individuals who work for them.

At a time when rogue movers are on the rise, CAM supports and rewards reputable movers who have established themselves as credible, reliable companies who adhere to a strict code of conduct.

The CAM awards recognize outstanding service by moving companies and individuals who have contributed to the growth and professionalism of the moving industry:

Agent of the Year Award recognizes a moving company who provides outstanding corporate citizenship and customer service excellence: AMJ Campbell (North Bay)

Independent Mover of the Year Award recognizes an independent mover who demonstrates outstanding performance: MIB Moving Inc. (Fort McMurray)

Distinguished Service Award recognizes an individual who exemplifies CAM standards for quality: Jim Calhoun, United Van Lines (Canada)

Innovators Award recognizes innovations and significant breakthroughs in the moving industry: Franco Collard, Déménagement Drummond Inc. (Drummondville)

Industry Achievement Award recognizes an individual who demonstrates innovation, leadership and serves as an inspiration to others: Bob Smith, QHP Moving & Storage Ltd. (Edmonton)

Move for Hunger Award recognizes a moving company who has contributed the most food for the cause: Armstrong Moving & Storage (Mississauga)

"The recipients are well-deserving of their awards and we are proud of each of them," said Paul Leader, President & CEO of CAM. "Every day we educate consumers on how to pick credible, professional movers. The winners of the CAM awards are excellent examples of this and an inspiration to others."
