ARPIN INTERNATIONAL GROUP UK DIVISION EARNS FIDI CERTIFICATION

LONDON (November 21, 2008) - The FIDI Global Alliance has granted membership to Arpin International Group's United Kingdom branch after a thorough quality inspection. FIDI (Fédération Internationale des Déménageurs Internationaux), based in Belgium, is the largest global alliance of independent quality international removal companies.

In order to qualify as a FIDI member, companies must undergo a rigorous inspection procedure including a thorough review of financial security and stability, facilities, equipment and materials, staff qualifications, quality management, insurance and risk management, permits and licenses, environmental policy, product and service knowledge, service processes, quotation and contracts, claims, responsiveness and customer feedback as well as other items. Ernst & Young performed the compliance procedure on behalf of FIDI.

"FIDI is the gold standard for the international moving business," said John Ferguson, Director of Arpin International UK Ltd. "Becoming a FIDI member is another way we can show our customers and business partners that we take quality control seriously and conduct our UK operation with peak professionalism."

Arpin International Group holds a FIDI accreditation for its Rhode Island-based headquarters in addition to the U.K.
