ARPIN INTERNATIONAL GROUP RECEIVES TWO WEICHERT AWARDS FOR CUSTOMER SATISFACTION

EAST GREENWICH, R.I. (April 8, 2010) - Arpin International Group has won two awards from Weichert Relocation Resources, (WRR), a leading relocation and assignment management company, for outstanding customer satisfaction survey scores.

Arpin received the Weichert Move Network Raving Fan Award. Lynn Wargo, an Arpin International Group relocation coordinator, won the Weichert Move Network Coordinator of the Year Award.

"I am very proud of the dedication, optimism and care Lynn and our Arpin team members around the world show to our customers," said Jim Esposito, director of western USA & global strategy for Arpin International Group. "We are grateful for the trust Weichert shows in us as a global supplier of moving services and we will continue to earn that trust every day."

The awards are based upon relocating families' customer satisfaction, with the top rating called "Raving Fan." Arpin International Group's scores were 92 percent "Raving Fan" and 97 percent "overall satisfied," with a 52 percent response rate.

Wargo's scores were 95 percent "Raving Fan" and 100 percent "overall satisfied," with a 62 percent response rate, making her the top-rated coordinator system-wide, including surveys from domestic and international moves.

Weichert Relocation Resources Inc. (WRR) is the Next Practices Company® in the relocation and assignment management industry, delivering turnkey solutions that help clients recruit and retain key employees, increase productivity, and more cost-effectively manage their mobile workforce.
