ARPIN GROUP ACQUIRES
AFFILIATED TRANSPORTATION SYSTEMS

WEST WARWICK, R.I. (May 4, 2010) - Arpin Group today announced it acquired the stock of Affiliated Transportation Systems (ATSI) and eight related companies. ATSI is a household goods transportation service provider located in Lawton, Oklahoma, and primarily serves military personnel.

"This acquisition will provide significant opportunities for Arpin Van Lines' agents to pack and haul shipments that are booked by ATSI," said David Arpin, president and CEO of Arpin Group.

ATSI and its related companies own or manage 22 military authorities with over $32 million in billings in 2009.

All of ATSI's operations will continue in place in Lawton, Oklahoma, and be operated independently of the Arpin companies. Ron McDonald, ATSI senior vice president, will continue to be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the acquired companies and report to Matt Dolan, Arpin Group's senior vice president and chief operating officer.
