

Application for CAM Scholarship

A scholarship from the Canadian Association of Movers will be awarded to an eligible applicant who has successfully completed an accredited truck driver training program with the purpose of being employed in the household goods moving and storage industry. CAM's decision to award $1000 to an applicant will be based upon the applicant's proof of achievement, letters of recommendation/support and the applicant's letter of intent. The scholarship is a one-time award that is specifically intended to provide financial assistance to the applicant and generally to foster interest in work in the transportation industry.

Applicant must:

- Be an owner, employee or an independent contractor of a CAM member company in good standing, or a child, grandchild, or spouse of an owner, employee or independent contractor thereof.
- Have successfully completed a government-approved truck driver training program within the 12 months prior to the application deadline.
