

INSIDE: CONFERENCES ~ NEW PRESIDENTS ~ NEW MEMBERSGREETINGS FROM CAM'S NEW PRESIDENT

I want everyone to know how much I am looking forward to working with all of you in the years ahead. I can assure you that keeping up the fine image that John has cultivated over the last 18 years will be a full-time job.

Our magazine, The Canadian Mover, will be coming off the press in April and I want to take this opportunity to ask for and encourage your input. Should you know of any story or item that is newsworthy or would be of interest to our membership, please share it with us. We are always interested in helping to keep our membership informed.

Paul Leader, President
& CEO, CAM

CAM's 2015 ANNUAL CONFERENCEMark your calendar!

The CAM annual conference will be held in Ottawa, Ontario from Sunday, November 1 to Tuesday, November 3, 2015. We plan to offer an exciting program that will address the future challenges and opportunities for our industry. We are looking for presenters who are willing to share their knowledge and experience with the moving industry and offer ideas with practical application that can result in business efficiencies. Contact us if you have a message that you'd like to present and that will contribute to the professional development of our attendees.

ATLAS VAN LINES (CANADA) LTD ANNOUNCES NEW PRESIDENT

CAM extends its congratulations to Barry Schellenberg on his recent appointment as president of Atlas Van Lines (Canada) Ltd!

Barry brings with him knowledge of transportation and logistics as having held previous management roles with United Parcel Service, DHLExpress Canada, Sameday Worldwide and CE Franklin.

We look forward to working with Barry in his new role.

NEW CFIB CONTACT FOR CAM MEMBERS

The partnership between CAM and the Canadian Federation of Independent Business has been up-and-running for over two years now. Many of you have already joined the CFIB to take advantage of their multi-dimensional benefit programs. CAM members receive membership fee reductions that can offset the cost of CAM membership. CAM's new contact person at CFIB is Richard DeMarco. Talk to him about joining - it can only do you good!

MEETING WITH ONTARIO GOVERNMENT

On January 29th, Paul Leader met with representatives of the Ontario Ministry of Government & Consumer Services. This was a follow-up to the initial meeting held in December of 2014 to deal with the issue of Rogue Movers. The meeting was productive and established some guidelines that will enhance data-sharing between CAM and the Government. A future meeting of industry stakeholders, CAM and the Government to discuss the issues further and explore solutions is being planned.

AMSA 96th ANNUAL EDUCATION CONFERENCE & EXPO

Paul Leader will be attending AMSA's annual conference in Orlando, FL on February 8-11. If you are attending, be sure to find him and say hello.

CAM MEMBERS AS SUBCONTRACTORS

CAM international members and suppliers that engage in moving household goods and personal effects within Canada will have to commit to using an accredited CAM member for all origin and destination services. If you're using your CAM certification to validate you to a consumer, then everyone in your service group must also be CAM-accredited.

NEW MEMBERS

We have two new members who joined CAM in January.
