

Moving Consultant / Sales – Dorval, QC

We are currently seeking motivated bilingual sales representatives that are customer service driven.

You are at ease with dealing clients both in public and on the phone with a customer service approach. Your power of persuasion, your excellent presentation and your capability of "listening to your customer" are your best attributes.

Position requirements:

- Must own car (vehicle allowance is supplied)
- Fluently bilingual in French & English
- Dynamic, open minded and flexible
- Positive attitude
- Great communication skills
- Organized
- Approachable
- Adept of the latest technology
- Experience in the moving industry will be an asset

Your responsibilities will be:

- Educating your customer and explaining the benefits and advantages of our services
- Conducting on site visual surveys with clients
- Meeting the needs of each customer by offering the best services for them
- Take care of internal documentation to complete the order
- After-sales support

This is a commission-oriented position with vehicle allowances included -- your drive and motivation are your only limit.
